OPEN AIR CAMPAIGNERS - TEXAS

May 2018

Dear Friends, Prayer Warriors and Supporters,

WE HOPE THAT THE EARLY MONTHS of 2018 have been good to you. It's hard to believe that a third of the year has already passed. It's been a while since we've communicated with you, so let me get right to it. Dovie and I celebrated our 43rd anniversary on the last day of January. I'm so glad I tricked her when she was young and naïve! I am so grateful for her as my wife and partner in ministry!

IT'S BEEN A COLD, WET AND WINDY WINTER AND SPRING, and we didn't get to be outdoors as much as we would have liked to in the first four months of the year. Chip and I took a trip to New Orleans for outreach at Mardi Gras with about 30 other men. It was a busy weekend, and we had a lot of rain, but God allowed our group to see eight professions of faith in Jesus nonetheless.

WE DID GET OUTSIDE some locally, with outreaches in Plano at one of our regular spots, a festival in Garland, a carnival worker outreach at the Stockyards in Ft. Worth, and downtown Dallas near the DART Station and at Klyde Warren Park.

YES, PRAISE THE LORD, there has been a settlement after a long arduous civil battle over the right to be in the park and exercise our First Amendment privilege to engage in religious speech there. Although there are some restrictions, we consider it a tremendous victory that we are back in the park and are thankful to God and so grateful to the attorneys at the Center for Religious Expression who battled for almost three years with KW Park and the City of Dallas just to get us the freedoms that are already ours according to the U.S. Constitution. Check out the story in "Updates" at the bottom of the C.R.E. home page at <http://www.crelaw.org/>.

WE WERE ALSO BLESSED with some indoor opportunities to share the Gospel at the Dallas Life shelter, a youth group in Yorktown, Texas, who spent their spring break working at a retreat center. We also did Gospel presentations for a youth group and a kids' club at a mission in Austin.

THANK YOU SO MUCH for your prayers, support, encouraging notes and letters and your sacrificial giving which enables us to share the good news with people in various locations. We are extremely grateful for all you do!

ENJOY A FEW PICS of the ministry we engaged in at some of the locations listed above on the back of this letter.
